FOREWORD

All good things must come to an end. "Through the Years" we have shared "Heartaches," joys, tears, and laughter. All these have formed ideals, hopes, and dreams for "Tomorrow," but deep down in the hearts of every individual there will "Always" be the "Memory" of those dear old "School days."

To help you recall all these wonderful "Moments to Remember," the Annual Staff proudly presents to you, The Carolinian of 1958, and "Sincerely" wish for each of you a rich and successful life.

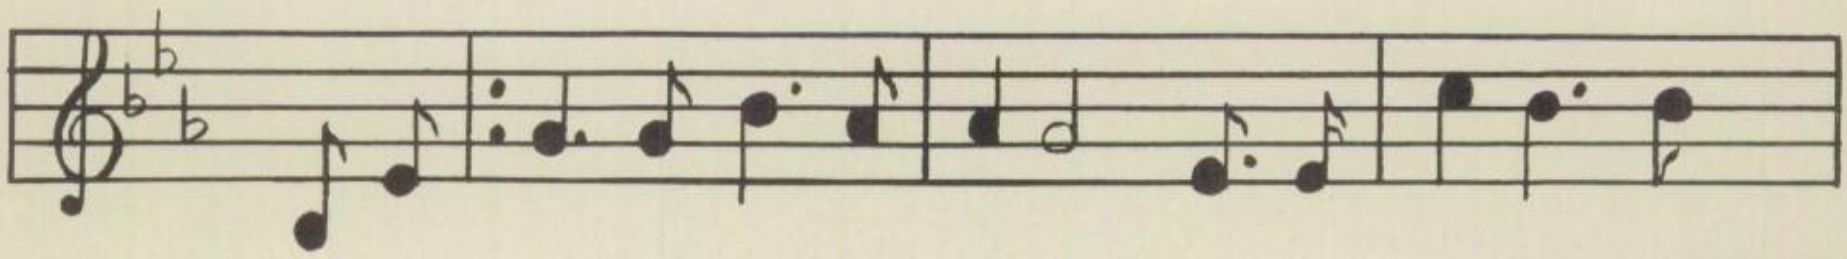
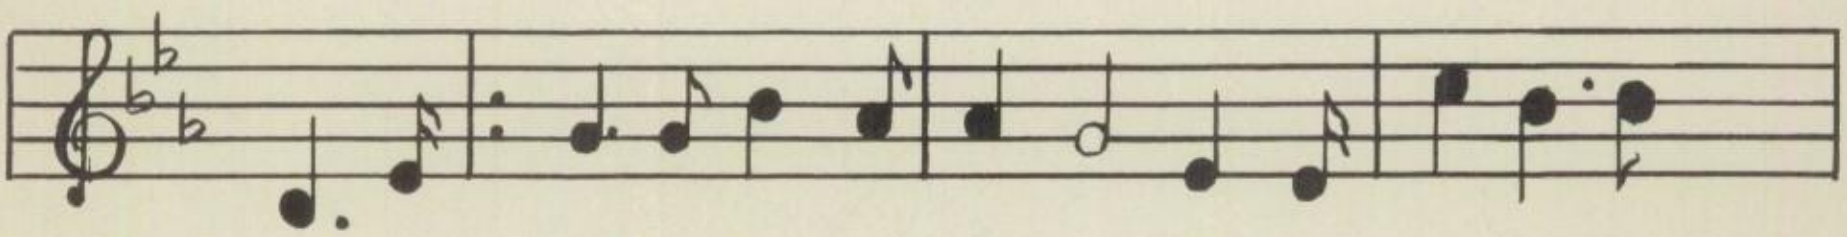
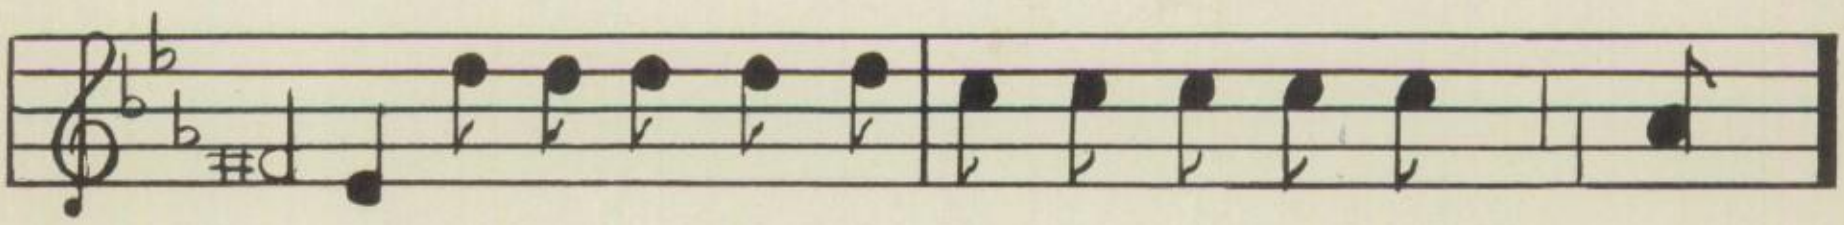
ALMA MATER



O we love thee, Carolina that so proudly stands today,
And we will sing thy praises; as we go along our way
May thy ideals high be lifted, and thy light be bright and clear;



As we tread the path of knowledge, to our goals that we seek here.
O let us cheer her on, to victory and song;
And Carolina live forever more, O cheers for days gone by;



We'll hold her honor high and shout her praises ever to the sky;
For we love thee Carolina, that so proudly stands today,
And we will not forget; though we be far, far away.

BACK TO SCHOOL AGAIN

One more year to go, one more year to enjoy the fellowship of school companions. "Round and Round" goes "The Wheel of Fortune" telling of our future. It keeps calling "You Are My Destiny," and with each sound we remember the "Everyday" life of those "Dear Hearts and Gentle People" of our school world that made our life enjoyable.

Dear Carroll,

After much thought and a good deal of concerted effort I was finally able to choose one winner and one runner-up from each class. Believe me, it was a difficult decision to make in many cases but I hope that you all will be pleased with the decision. You certainly have a nice looking group of gals at Carolina High.

I would like to congratulate each and every entry and wish you all luck and success in the future.

Yours sincerely,

How Much Is That Doggie In The Window

Jimmy,

I've enjoyed going to school with you for the past two year. It has been a real pleasure knowing you with that shiny disposition. Words can't express how you have helped me in school. You have always cheered me up when I was sad. We have had our share of disappointments along with our fun.

Even though we have completed our school career, I hope it isn't the end of our friendship. I hope that you will always consider me as one of your very best friends. Hope to see you lots in the future.

Love ya,
Kathy Smith
